Tag Law FOR Large Trucks, AGAINST Small Ones—Confusing To Farmers; Legislators Generally Uninformed

8,000 Pound Tractor Tag Reduced From $210 To $88 Says Vehicle Commissioner

Smaller Trucks Make Up Loss From Favorable Law

Palm Beach County's legislators in hot water, with fellow members of the House over the general "misinformation," "misunderstanding," "lack of information" and "failure to understand provisions" of the much discussed "P Tag Bill."

His fellow introducers walked out on him and numerous other legislators are sore at the lack of information on the reduction in joint-haul tags, and the flagrant use of the "P" tag for over-the-road trucks, particularly in Mr. Elliott's back.

Commissioner of Vehicles Flaherty said that the loss of revenue on account of the reduction from $175 to $110 for (Continued on Page 4)

Ray Wilkerson In Local Hospital

Ray Wilkerson is in the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital as a result of an altercation with South Bay policeman A. E. Cline Tuesday afternoon.

Physicians state that there is a "slight concussion" and that Ray bears evidence of having been "worked over" in some manner, with bruises and cuts, particularly on the head.

The physician also states that Ray was unconscious for several hours after being brought to the hospital.

According to policeman Cline he observed a car heading south at the lower end of the City limits and waited for it to pass. (Continued on Page 4)

RAINS DELAY LITTLE LEAGUE SCHEDULES

POW LEAGUE STADIUMS

"Despite the delays on account of rains, we are about to get going with the regular scheduled games," says president, James Baldwin of the Little League organization.

"Our boys play a much better game of ball when they have a large crowd and we hope the public will come out and encourage them. Mr. Baldwin continues, "We have an excellent organization and a lot of work has been done on this project." (Continued on Page 4)

Buddy Schoenfeld Is Elected Lions Incoming President

All its annual election Wednesday the local unit selected Buddy Schoenfeld as President for the next year, and completed the state of officers.

Following the election, the entire meeting was taken up with practice for the Ministers planned for Tuesday night, May 11th. Plans indicate that the usual high order of entertainment offered by this event will be surpassed this year.

The following are officers elected to help Buddy Schoenfeld guide the Lions activities: C. W. McDonald, First Vice Pres., Robt. Ford, Second Vice Pres., and Robt. Murray III as Third Vice Pres. R. M. Dea will be Secretary with August Kirkman keeping tabs on the money. Tall Twister is Jack Royals, while the Lion Tamer is Ed Graber. V. Mulberg is a two-year director and Francis Harris a two-year director.

"Cost Of Living" Bonus Of $15 Given City Employees

The City Commission, at the recommendation of City Manager Tom Carle, allowed a $15 monthly "cost of living" bonus to all city employees whose base pay is $350 and over.

"If we expect the highest quality of work from our folks, we must give them a decent living wage," says the City Manager, and I am trying to work out a fair scale for our employees.

The Commission also undertook to readjust the Budget, on account of a number of items which had been ordered by the Commission without a corresponding budget item, with the result that a total of $48,620 has been spent so far this budget year without benefit of budgetary authorization.

According to the revised budget, the year will end with only a budget deficit of some $100,000. (Continued on Page Four)

Corn Prices Upping With Celery Slow; Beans Are Active

The rains during the past week haven't done the beans nor the corn any good; they delayed picking and harvesting and resulted in damaged goods being offered on the market.

However, within the past few days corn prices have strengthened and give promise of a better figure from now on out, according to reports.

Good beans offered just previous to the rain brought fair prices and some real damage was done to a number of farms who had beans ready for picking during the rainy spell.

The movement felt considerably during the week.

Two Bean City Men Seriously Burned

Joe Wall of South Bay and Raymond Hall of Bean City were painfully injured in an accident on the Evans & Rogers Farm Tuesday afternoon as they were overhauling a motor in a dragline. They were working in an open field adjacent to the Bolea Canal at Okaloosa and had the motor on the ground.

At the time of the accident, they were welding the fuel tank which blew up in their faces. Other workmen who were busy overhauling, repainting and reconditioning the dragline summoned the ambulance by two way radio and the injured men were rushed to the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Wall suffered a fractured hip and severe burns. Mr. Hall had a broken arm and facial burns. They were still in shock late in the afternoon and no statement of the accident could be obtained from them.

X-rays were taken to determine the extent of the injuries but it was not immediately known whether they had suffered any internal injuries or not. Dr. R. L. Pipes being out of town. They were given emergency treatment by Dr. Herman Bant.

Engineers Initiate A Method Of Cooperative Study With Interested Areas

That spirit of "undivided effort" to urgently advocated by Spessard Holland to Floridians in matters pertaining to the Overall Flood Control Program marked the closing of a four-hour conference in which representatives of the Caloosahatchee Valley, Lake Okechobee farming and cattle in terests and the Stuart-St. Lucie group, the U.S. Engineers and the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Board Wednesday at Clewiston, participated.

Col. J. M. Harris, District Engineer of Jacksonville, asked the three groups to select four persons each as a permanent advisory committee to meet with his technicians to discuss problems affecting the design, construction and administration of the Overall Program.

Colonel Schull briefly refuted the history of flood control effort since the turn of the century, Okechobee and was followed by heads of two of his planning divisions, Mr. L. A. Farrer and Mr. J. M. Harris, who discussed the studies already made and now in progress, of plans to regulate the level of Lake Okechobee. (Continued on Page Two)

Wetherington Funeral Home, Belle Glade, was in charge. Elder Ernest Archer of Canal Point Baptist Church officiated at the graveside services in Port Mayaca Cemetery.

Mr. Holcomb was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose in Clearwater and a member of the Baptist Church. He was a native of Lake Ok, Fla., and son of the late Rev. P. H. Holcomb of Live Oak. He moved to Belle Glade about three years ago from Clearwater and was employed by Royal's Store. The past two years he lived in Lake Harbor and was the manager of Royal's Store.

Survivors include his wife, Katie Lee, four daughters, June, Carol Ann, Sharon and Dianne and one son, William Russell, mother, Mrs. E. H. W. B. RHODES REVEALS
ALUMNI RESOLUTION

A University of Florida Alumni Association resolution expressing "confidence" in the athletic scheduling policies of Head Football Coach Bob Woodruff was revealed recently by William B. Rhodes president of the Belle Glade, U. of Fla.

Alumni Club.

The resolution, approved by the local club and the Executive Council of the State Association, endorsed the policies of Coach Woodruff in scheduling football games with Southern Conference teams and others on a parity with conference teams, and continuance of the rivalry between Florida and the University of Miami, as long as the rivalry is mutually agreeable and can be continued in a spirit of good sportsmanship. The complete resolution reads: "WHEREAS, The University of Florida Alumni Association is keenly aware of the continuing responsibility of the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics in stimulating students interested in athletics to achieve leadership through proper participation in competitive sports; and "WHEREAS, The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics of the University of Florida has, in the opinion of the Association, given the student body, alumni and general public, the best all-around sports program in its history;

"WHEREAS, The University of Florida as the sole representative of the State of Florida in the Southeastern Conference has placed upon it the responsibility of increasing its conference standing by schedules designed to best insure maximum team success and

"WHEREAS, The continued traditional rivalry already long established with the University of Miami is desirable and should be continued.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the University of Florida Alumni Association go on record as approving the policy of the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics as follows:

1. Scheduling athletic contests designed to interest, first, the student body and their parents, and secondly, the alumni, friends of the University and the general public.

2. Scheduling intercollegiate contests in all sports with first and continuing priority on Southeastern Conference games, the remainder of the schedule being designed to best implement the objective of team success within the conference, continuing to the extent possible intercollegiate and other contests with member teams of conferences having schedules and team standing on parity with the Southeastern.

3. Continuing the established and traditional rivalry in intercollegiate athletics with the University of Miami because of the demonstrated interest between student bodies, alumni, and the general public, so long as this rivalry is mutually agreeable and can be continued in a spirit of good sportsmanship."

SINCLAIR, FIRCHMAN CO.
1954 ROAD MAPS READY
FOR DISTRIBUTION

Motorists taking to the open road this year will find better highways and shorter routes than ever before, if the changes necessary to up-to-date last year's Sinclair road maps for the 1954 series are any indication, Mr. F. J. Fisher, local area sales manager of Sinclair Refining Company predicted this week.

More than 15,000 mapping changes were made for Sinclair's newly published 1954 road map series to reflect highway and other touring improvements made in the past year, Mr. Fisher said.

The changes include new roads that have been laid including superhighways and toll roads, new route number designations, re-alignment of old roads, changes in road widths and surfaces, improved bridges and tunnels, and numerous other changes reflecting the tremendous volume of work done in the last twelve months by the highway departments of the country.

In addition, many new town names appear for the first time on the new maps, while other towns have changed their names.

Information for Sinclair maps, which are prepared by the Rand McNally organization, includes all items of tour and highway interest as reported through the first month of the current year by highway departments, Chambers of Commerce, trade associations and scores of other government and business sources. A second 1954 edition of the Sinclair maps, to be issued about the middle of the year, will reflect still further improvements made in roads and routes during the spring months.

OUR GOVERNOR

Please send me your ideas about Florida's needs for the next two years

Charley Johns thinks that the candidates for the office of Governor could get a lot of sound ideas for Florida's state government if the voters would just speak right-out and say what they think Florida needs and what they want done.

Charley Johns believes that the voters might like to have a chance to tell the candidates what they think in addition to being told what the candidates propose to do.

Charley Johns knows that the average person hesitates to put his thoughts on paper and send them along to the candidate.

So This is an Open Invitation to you as a citizen interested in good government to write Charley Johns and say what you would like to see his administration do during the next two years.

Keeping Track Of Poppas And Mammas In Effort To Find A Strain Of Sweet Corn Resistant To Leaf Blight

DR. GLENN SMITH, USDA

Helmholtz, otherwise known as Leaf Blight, has played havoc in the sweet corn fields of the Glades this spring, and something is being done by the Experiment Station and the USDA about it.

Mr. Emil Wolf, horticulturist of the Everglades Experiment Station, initiated a request by Dr. Tommy Forrester to USDA for the loan of Dr. Glenn Smith, producer of the Golden Bantam Corn, which has enjoyed a premium in the sweet corn field of the United States.

Dr. Smith was assigned temporarily by Dr. Merle T. Jenkins USDA in charge of Cereal Crops and Diseases, for the purpose of seeking a cross or hybrid that is resistant to leaf blight. Dr. Smith has established plots in the Glades for that purpose and has been acquainted with this problem.

Probably no authority could have been secured with a better background of accomplishment in the corn field than Dr. Smith. Born to an agricultural environment, Dr. Smith received the degree of BS in horticulture from Iowa State College and later his MS in Agriculture from Purdue University where he taught in the Agricultural College.

Dr. Smith has for more than 30 years delved into the why and wherefores of field, pop and sweet corn, and all the scientific advancement in commercial production of each.

He received the Medallion of Honor Award for Horticulture of the All-American Selections, an organization sponsored by the Seedsmen of the Country for the production of the Golden Bantam, with the accompanying declaration: "It is not too much to say that the Golden Bantam revolutionized the sweet corn canning industry."

His work in popcorn has resulted in more "pop", more production and more quality. Normally 16 to 18 times increase was expected in a good popcorn, and a lot of it was eaten because kids had to be quiet and filled on something. After studies in which Dr. Smith participated by request, the popability increased to around 28 to 30 times, the yield in the high thirty-hundreds and the quality added crunching devotes to the popcorn trade.

Countries around the Globe have asked for Dr. Smith's services on corn improvement and other problems, and he has resisted the enticement of a double salary to help other countries under the foreign aid program, in favor of helping home folks.

A movement is afoot to urge the continuance of Dr. Smith's work here to help us overcome the leaf blight as he did in the wilt back home, and if you want him to continue, let somebody know it. Dr. Forrester, Mr. Wolf, Dr. Smith and above all his boss, Dr. Merle T. Jenkins, USDA.

Why We Recommend LeRoy Collins For Governor

Today Florida is barely entered upon what should be the most important period in its history. It is an era of transition which is seeing us transformed from what Time Magazine called a "playboy state" into a solid, balanced agro-industrial economy.

How successful this process is — how prosperous our future is going to be — depends to a very large degree upon whom the people choose to be Governor of Florida for the next few years. Although the present campaign is only for the two years of the late Gov. Dan McCarry's unexpired term, these two years are crucial. They are doubly important because of the effect this year's election may have upon the choice of a full-term governor in 1956.

If the people wisely choose a chief executive of undoubted integrity and proven ability, business executives considering Florida as a possible location for industries will have the confidence to move here. Bankers and insurance companies will feel safe in making investments here. Municipal school and county bond issues will require less interest. Mortgages for homes, and private business borrowing, will cost less.

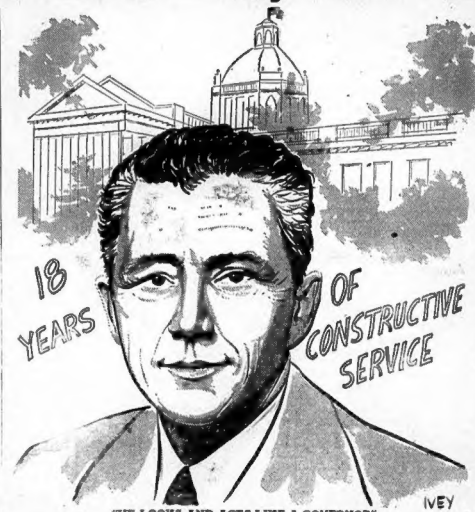

Which of the three candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor has the stature and the demonstrated capacity to give Florida this great asset toward a firm economic structure — by means of administering the affairs of state fairly and efficiently.

As we see it, only Sen. LeRoy Collins of Tallahassee measures up.

In addition to the novelty of electing a two-year governor, Floridians this time face the innovation of having the incumbent, Arthur Godfrey, running to succeed himself. What has been happening in the way of using the powers of the governorship to promote the state's economic development, the institutional provision for the future, and the state's financial perspective, it is necessary only to consider what might have been had he been acting for the second year of his being Acting Governor. Coming from a constituency representing fewer than one per cent of Florida's voters, with a legislative record not only undistinguished but definitely bad, and with no conspicuous experience whatever, Charles Johns would not have given a second thought by the people of Florida.

His exercise of the powers of governorship have been absolutely disastrous — particularly in his high-handed dismissal of 15 able and reputable top aids named by Gov. McCarry.

His wild promises of road and bridge building — which cost $10 times the amount of funds which will be available in the next two years — would be judged, not by the number of miles of road built, but by the number of voters who are dissatisfied with the results.

"HE LOOKS AND ACTS LIKE A GOVERNOR"

Mr. Johns' readiness to promote special interests — all speculators, in this instance — and his blind ability to shift from one position to another overnight, have been demonstrated by his shocking behavior in regard to the Everglades National Park.

Finally, but far from least, is the close association of Mr. Johns with the John Red Road Board member, Francis P. Whitehead, considered by many the real power behind the throne in the present administration and the John Red Road Board member, Francis P. Whitehead, considered by many the real power behind the throne in the present administration and the John Red Road Board member, Francis P. Whitehead, considered by many the real power behind the throne in the present administration.

times than any other named in 1953 being named "Most Valuable Senator," "Most Valuable Member of the Legislature," "Outstanding in Debate." This is a tribute to the Senator's personal popularity as well as his ability.

In his 18 years in both House and Senate, Sen. Collins has held the chairmanship of nine committees. While he is best known as the "father" of the Minimum Foundation Program for schools and for health and welfare legislation, the fact is that he has been a leader in fighting for most of the progressive measures adopted by the Legislature ever since he was a member.

In his private life, Sen. Collins is an exemplary citizen as he is in public life. Largely self-educated beyond the high school level, he is a highly capable lawyer. This naturally attracts important clients — a fact which Bruley Odham has attempted to twist into an argument against him.

Another quality of LeRoy Collins — something often overlooked in political candidates — is the warmth and friendliness and genuineness of the man. That flashing smile of his, becoming familiar to thousands over television, and his soft earnest voice, are not assumed political poses. They are a real measure of the man. One needs to spend only a few minutes with him to feel deeply that "Here is a real man. Here is a person who will never let pride of office make him forget the problems of his fellow human beings."

Collins is one of the "elect" a Governor's family to occupy the Executive Mansion, nevertheless he is an important human factor. Sen. Collins and his lovely wife have four children — a son in the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and three utterly charming daughters. Florida will recall that when Chief Justice Earl Warren was governor of California, his little captured the heart of the nation.

As Governor, LeRoy Collins would give Florida both the stability and the vision it needs at this time. He could pick up the lower end left by Gov. McCarry's death and restore a sense of confidence in the government. He could provide thoughtful and a cooperative guidance for the 1955 Legislature, and he could restore the Executive Branch firmly and honestly.

At this stage in its economic life, Florida cannot indulge in the luxury of either a back politician or an overgrown amateur in the governorship. Sound government means dollars in the pockets of Florida's people. The way to insure that kind of administration is to elect LeRoy Collins as Governor.

THE UNITED STATES POLL

1 Out Of Every 6 In The United States Today Is Looking For A Place To Live

By Kenneth Flak, Director, Princeton Research Service.

Just about 1 out of every 6 families in the nation would like to find another place to live. This was the finding when United States Poll staff reports recently put the following question to an accurate cross-section of the nation's voters: "Are you looking right now for some other place to live?"

The results:

Nationwide	Yes	No
18%	82%

Exactly one year ago, the answers on the same question were as follows: Yes, 19%; No, 81%.

In other words, today, 3% fewer people across the nation than a year ago are looking for some other place to live. Whether you are looking for a place to live depends to great extent on whether you own or rent your home, on whether you live in a big city or rural area, and on whether you are a young adult or an older one.

For example, 31 out of every 100 home renters across the nation say they are looking for some other place to live; whereas only 4 in every 100 home owners say this.

Here's the way the nation's home owners and home renters answered:

Home owners	Home renters
4%	31%
96%	69%

Survey findings also show that the bigger the community you live in, the more likely you are to be looking for another place to live.

For example, 27 out of every 100 residents of the nation's cities with populations of 100,000 or more—places like Akron, Ohio; Baltimore, Maryland; Boston, Mass.; New York, New York; Jersey City, New Jersey; Chicago, Illinois; Cincinnati, Ohio; Kansas City, Missouri; St. Louis, Missouri; Seattle, Washington; and New Orleans, La., interviewed in the survey said they were looking for another place to live.

And nearly as high a proportion of those living in cities and towns with populations between 25,000 and 100,000 said the same thing.

In communities between 2,500 and 25,000, the proportion is somewhat less—about 1 in 10.

Interestingly, satisfaction with their present living quarters is just about the same among manual workers and white-collar workers throughout the nation.

HOW IMPORTANT IS PUBLIC HEALTH TOPIC AT TB MEET

Some 100 people attended the Annual Meeting of the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis and Health Association at the South-east Florida Tuberculosis Hospital recently, according to Lowery Davis, President.

The group re-elected the following officers: Lowery Davis, President; A. Parker Bryant, Vice President; Mrs. Fred J. Schultz, Secretary; O. G. Locher, Treasurer. Re-elected to serve on the Executive Committee in addition to the officers were Lake Loyal, Ernest L. Abel, Mrs. J. R. Sutcliffe and Rev. H. H. Waller. New Board Members elected were: Miss Jean Patton, Delray Beach; Mrs. Henry H. Porter, Boynton; Roy R. Michael, Jr., Alexandria; Miss Lake Warrick, Clear Lake; A. Lavender, Clear Lake; M. Murrell, Pahokee; Mrs. Barron Collier, Jr., Ft. Pierce; P. W. Wilson, Ft. Pierce; Joseph E. Gum, Harold A. Hamilton, Riviera Beach; Mrs. Victoria Henry, Jimmie Rogers, Groveside; J. Votaw, West Palm Beach.

O. G. Locher reported that disbursements for the past year were $22,467.01 and that the audit report will be available as soon as the Annual Audit is completed.

A. Parker Bryant, Chairman of the Budget Committee, presented a budget totaling $27,244.00 which was adopted by the group. He announced that the final Christmas Seal Sale total was $32,547.08 and thanked all volunteers and contributors for their efforts.

Mrs. James L. Waugh announced that EVH Review, school paper of the Everglades Vocational High School, Belle Glade won the "Best in the County" award in the 17th Annual School Press Project.

Lake Loyal acted as moderator for the Legislative Forum which Fred O. Dickinson, Jr., William A. Wall, Charles D. Pierce, Jr., Kenneth J. Horton, Emmett S. Roberts and R. Elliott participated. The question discussed was "How important is Public Health?" It was generally agreed that as the Federal Government withdraws financial aid from the Public Health Services the State should take steps to see that money is available to insure continuance of such programs as Mass Chest X-ray Surveys and Venereal Disease Control. It was agreed also that the preventive programs of Public Health Departments were not only essential for the well being of Florida's populace and visitors but would prove an economy in the long run.

Millions have found the Statue of Liberty a symbol of new hope and new life in the new world. The inscription carved on the base of the statue has shown a warm welcome to the rest of the world:

"Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, The wretched refuse of your teeming shore, Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

The throne-crowned head and mail-pierced hands of the Statue of Liberty are a symbol of everlasting hope and eternal life to the whole world.

A Hymn Is Born

BY CLINT BONNER

Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour

Fanny Crosby's greatest hymn was among her first

Dr. Valentine Matt led the little girl and her widowed mother to the door. The famous New York surgeon had made a thorough examination of the child's eyes but there was nothing he could do. When Fanny Crosby was 6 weeks old she had caught cold and a country doctor prescribed mustard poultices for her inflamed eyes. She was 5 years old and totally blind. Her father had died and her mother had remarried. Fanny Crosby made no money to her to the special. As Dr. Matt turned back into his office Fanny Crosby heard him say "Poor little blind girl." What the sympathetic doctor didn't know was that the little girl was to turn her handicap into an asset. Just three years later Fanny Crosby wrote her first verse "Oh, What a Happy Child I Am. Although I cannot see I am resolved, that the world is a wonderful place."

Two decades later the superintendent of New York's Institute for the Blind walked into the office to find his small secretary taking down verse while one of the blind instructors dictated. He wanted better health further waste of the school's time. But neither thought they were wasting time.

Pass me not, O gentle Saviour,
When I am Thy out-calling,
Save me by Thy grace,
Thou art the Spring of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom have I on earth loved Thee?
Whom in Heaven but Thee?

Threatning only in Thy merit,
Would I stand Thy foot;
Heal my wounded, broken spirit,
Save me by Thy grace.

Let me at a throne of mercy
Find a sweet relief;
Kneeling there in deep contrition,
Fold my unworthy self.

OUTLINE FOR THE INTERNATIONAL UNIFORM SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON — May 2, 1934

LESSON TOPIC — "Jerusalem on Jerusalem"

SCRIPTURE LESSON — I Kings 14:10-18, 12-18
By Roy, Robert Ford

INTRODUCTION:

After a successful overthrow of the ten northern tribes, we see Jerusalem turning from God. He sets up two places of worship; at which he places calves or bulls to be the visible representation of God. This was contrary to the 2nd Commandment. Also he sets up objects of adoration the female goddess and consort of Baal. Sickness strikes his home, the son is ill. A distracted father and the queen disguised as someone else to the new prophet Ahijah, who once prophesied that because of his sinful turning from God, "Today's lesson is God's Judgment as pronounced by the prophet."

1. A Faithful Prophet — vs. 4-6
Ahijah was old and blind, but still he spoke the Word of God with conviction and without fear.

II. A Faithful Judgment — vs. 7-10, 12-18
A. Due to great failure — vs. 9-10
B. Great punishment was to follow
1. Immediately in the death of the son of Jeroboam vs. 12-13
2. Ultimately the dynasty of Jeroboam to end — vs. 14-16

CONCLUSION:

Two things are true. The first is that God rules among the kings of the world, he provides over the destiny of nations. The second is that those nations that are righteous God exalts and those that are sinful He destroys. The prophet says, "the nation and kingdom that will not serve Thee, shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted." Again the prophet, "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."

The Everglades Good Citizenship League, the purpose of which is to control the liquor, gambling and narcotics traffic and assist peace officers in enforcing the laws to make the Everglades a better place to live, met at the Canal Point Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. Vice-president John Cooper, presiding in the absence of the president, J. L. Merrell of Pahokee.

C. A. Bailey, treasurer, reported 27 paid up members and a balance in the treasury of $38.72 with all bills to date paid. By constitution and by-laws, the membership fee is $2.00 per year. Anyone interested in promoting practices for the health and moral uplift of their communities is eligible to join. As needed arises for action in special causes, contributions may be accepted to take care of necessary expenses.

Bailey reported on the success of the Belle Glade committee which met the threat of extended liquor hours within the city limits by prompt action of a special group who appeared before the city commission armed with two petitions, one signed by some 300 citizens, the other by 57 farmers requesting that no extension of the liquor sales hours be authorized. The City Commission denied the petition of the liquor business people to extend the hours.

The program consisted of a technicolor sound film entitled, "Out of the Night" made by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. The film depicted the true life story of a drunkard who came back from Skid row.

Sharon Wilder, Linda Fisher, Joanne and Terry Boatwright, Mary Lee Little, Billy Wall, Sandra Will, Larry Morrison, Gladys and Norma Dallymple, Mary Mathewson, Jenny Austin, Margaret Kipland, Serena Albritton, Bertram Davis, Larry Kersey, Ginger, Janet and Genie Crichfield. Walker and Mrs. Melvin Herring.

RAIN, WET PAVEMENT CAUSE OF 4 ACCIDENTS

Trooper Joe P. Bertrand reports three highway accidents Sunday with injuries to eight persons, the results of trying to mix rain, wet pavements and excessive speed on the highways. They just don't mix.

The first accident occurred at 10:30 am, on U. S. Highway No. 27 some 7 miles south of South Bay, involving two cars.

Mrs. Jean Sparks, age 44, traveling north enroute to her home in Ontario, Canada lost control of her car on the wet pavement, crossed over the center line and met in a semi-head on collision a car traveling south driven by Herman Dye, age 53 of Canal Point, who was enroute to Miami to visit his daughter.

Mrs. Sparks suffered a fractured leg, multiple bruises and abrasions. Her mother, Mrs. Pearl Robertson, age 69, suffered multiple bruises and abrasions. All three were hospitalized at the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital.

Dye was given emergency treatment for cuts on his head and elbow and released to his home.

The two cars were damaged to the extent of $1000 each. The other two accidents were on SR No. 86 near Belle Glade during a late afternoon shower.

At 4:47 a half mile east of Belle Glade a Chevrolet coach driven by Barney Tuxnor Mills, age 31 of Ocochee Canal, traveling west, skidded sideways down the highway a distance of 210 feet, rolled over and came to rest in a shallow roadside canal. He suffered a dislocated arm and $300 damage to the car. His passenger, Leon Dalton, age 39, had a bruised arm and multiple bruises over his body.

The third accident at 6 o'clock occurred three quarters of a mile south of Belle Glade when a Mack Bowie Billiter, of Ocochee Camp, age 33, passed another car, cut in ahead and skidded into a pine tree. He suffered deep lacerations of the head and abrasions of the shin and $800 damage to his car.

His passenger, Clarence Meloy, age 17, had abrasions of the knees. The men were given emergency treatment at the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital near which the accident occurred and released to their homes.

REGULATIONS OUTLINED FOR NEW CITY PARK

The playground recreation committee consisting of appointed representatives of the several civic organizations met Monday to set up rules and regulations for recreation in Jeffrey Memorial Park. The town council has delegated power to this committee to have oversight over the park.

Mrs. Floyd Wilder representing the Parent Teacher Association was named chairman. Others on the committee are Mrs. S. E. Henderson, American Legion Auxiliary, J. C. Bowen, American Legion, Mrs. Marvin Davis and Mrs. Edythe Eckman, P.T.A.

Miss Myrtice Gilman was retained as playground director with a salary of $75.00 per month. She will be on the playground daily Monday through Saturday from 3 until 6 o'clock to supervise the children's play. Mothers of young children who wish their children to enjoy the playground equipment must provide adequate supervision and no child younger than 4½ years will be permitted on the playground without his mother or other responsible person to supervise his play.

Other rules laid down were no standing or doubling in swings, no climbing up slides, must use ladder; must sit up and not lie down when using slides; softball and baseball restricted to regular court, no smoking or obscene language, no dogs allowed. Children are required to obey the rules or be barred from use of the playground. Playground equipment donated to the children of South Bay by Mrs. Arthur Smadbeck, president of the Heckscher Foundation for Children, will be dedicated in a ceremony to take place early in May. Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge has awarded Admiral Corporation the George Washington honor medal for its television program "Life Is Worth Living," featuring talks by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen.

EQUIPMENT INSTALLED

Lake Shore Elementary School playgrounds are fully equipped according to Tom Carle, City Manager, who announced that the Heckscher Foundation for children, New York City had sent playground equipment which has been installed under the supervision of Mrs. C. W. McDonald park supervisor.

Assisting in the installation and the assembly was Clarence Troop of the water department and C. T. Pennington of the street department, who supervised the foundations and the erection. The playground equipment included slides, see-saw, ladder unit, bicycle racks, basketball stops, swings for all ages, merry-go-round, two castle towers, double chute slide, parallel bars and six park benches.

The city has permission to use the school grounds under the supervision of the school while it is in session and expects to have supervised hours from 3 to 5 pm.

The Municipal Park, which is considered one of the best equipped parks for its size in Florida, also received a large ocean wave slide and a bicycle rack.

Formal presentation of the equipment to the city has been set for May 6, by Mrs. Arthur Smadbeck, president of the Foundation, of Lake Wales Mayor Harold Rabin will accept in behalf of the city. A plaque will also be given to be erected at the same time.

Smaller communities in Florida are interested in stabilizing their economy by bringing new industry and new investments into their area. That is the trend shown by answers to questionnaires sent out by Florida Speaks magazine for use in their special Agro-Industrial supplement which was part of their April issue.

John W. Dillin, former manager of Ponce de Leon Springs has been appointed publicity director of Rainbow Springs, located near Dunnellon.

Browning, the famous poet, learned to speak although he could neither see nor hear.

Top Hit of the '54 season

Take a look at America's new heart throb, the new Ford Skyliner! It's the "hardtop" that gives you that wonderful outdoor feeling. And its new tinted transparent roof section is another Ford "first" in the low-price automobile field.

There's peace-setting style in the clean, honest lines of its Crestmark Body. And the color-harmonized interior matches exterior beauty in a most charming manner. What's more, there's restful comfort beneath the smart upholstery... in the foam rubber seat cushions and deep-pile floor seats.

And as in all 1954 Fords, you choose from the most modern engines in the industry; the new 115-hp. I-block Six or the new 130-hp. Y-block V-8... another reason why you can pay more but you can't buy better than Ford.
